VERSE OF THE WEEK

I always thank my God when I pray for you.

Philemon 1:4

NOTES FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Gratitude. Being grateful. Appreciating what someone has done. Expressing thanks.

Gratitude is an often overlooked act. And yet, gratitude is so necessary. Gratitude causes us to look beyond ourselves to see what others have done. Gratitude to God honors Him (Psalm 50:23). Jesus expressed His own gratitude to His Father (John 11:41.) The tenth leper returned to say thank you to Jesus (Luke 17:15-16.) The apostle Paul spoke of his gratitude to God for the believers to whom he was writing. (Philippians 1:3) Even today parents often remind their children, "What do you say?" "Say thank you!"

Saying "thank you" can make a positive impact on the people around us. What a great way to start a note, a conversation, a business, a marriage, a prayer, a meal, or a brand-new day. Gratitude blesses others and it honors God. So be a blessing today. Express gratitude. Tell someone "Thank you." And don't forget to also thank God! Being grateful is a blessing.
